THE STAR ROUTE TRIALS.

Testimony of Ex-Senator Saunders of Ne brasks and Charles H. French. Ex-Senator Saunders was the first witness placed on the stand in the star-route trial yesterday. He identified his indersement on a petition regarding the route from Kearney to Kent. Did not recollect who presented the petition to him. He did not remember having seen the words "schedule, thirteen hours," in the petition. He did not write thom, and thought if they had been there they would have attracted his attention, Mr. Bliss said the government proposed to show that when the petition was presented by an agent of the contractors it countsined no word about expedition, and between the time Senator Saunders placed hisname upon it and the time when it was presented to the department, the words asking for expedition were insorted in it.

CHARLES M. PRENCH. dentified his indersement on a petition regarding of Loup City, Neb., testified to being sub mail contractor and to making a contract with John M.

Peck, by his attorney, John W. Dorsey, on the route from Kearney to Kent. He identified a copy of the sub-contract. French was to be paid $700 for one round trip per week; $1,500 for two round trips, $3,300 for six round trips sp. $3,00 for six round trips sp. $300 for six round trips sp. $400 for such expedition. The witness said the pay of $500 a year was continued till the list of August, 1579. Since August, 1579, he had received $1,557.40, as he did not make trips clear through. He received payments from John R. Miner as agent for the contractor. He generally made a trip from Kearney to Loup City in twelve hours, and had never changed the time since he began the service. He had never been directed to expedite his time from Kearney to Loup City, and had Never a Received 56 Fere Cent. For Expeditor, a vetition. CHARLES H. PRENCH, NEVER RECEIVED 65 PER CENT. FOR EXPEDITION. He then described the number of horses and men on the route. He helped to circulate a petition received from John M. Peck for increased mait facilities. The words "schedule thirteen hours" were not in the petition when he circulated it. The replies were directed to be sent to "lock-box 714," Washington. The witness identified a number of letters that passed between himself and John W. Dorssy & Co. Counsel for the defense objected to the admission of this correspondence, as it was written before the Revised Statutes were amended under which the indictment was framed. Judge Wylle admitted it as tending to show the relationship of the parties and all the counsel for the defense noted exceptions. The witness was cross-examined at length, and at 4:15 the court adjourned. Sr. Manc.-Rogert A. Palmer, C. W. Mitchell, John Jarry, S. D. McCherry, New York.
